

The Riel Family Newsletter

Catch the News

September, 1998

SCHOOL NEWS - 1997-1998 TERM

It's time for another school year to begin, and as usual we publish in the September issue the list of kids and the schools they attend.

NAME	GRADE	SCHOOL
Kevin Riel	Sophomore	SDSU
Michael Riel-Mehan	Senior	La Costa Canyon H.S.
Chris Riel	Junior	Point Loma H.S.
Nathan Riel	Junior	Point Loma H.S.
Jason Benesch	Senior	Patrick Henry H.S.
Michelle Hartman	Junior	Monte Vista H.S.
Timothy Riel	Sophomore	Point Loma H.S.
Brett Sorem	Sophomore	Scripps Ranch H.S.
Jessica Benesch	Sophomore	Patrick Henry H.S.
Craig Hartman	Sophomore	Monte Vista H.S.
Kristy Gillingham	Freshman	Francis Parker M.S.
Megan Riel-Mehan	Freshman	La Costa Canyon H.S.
Curtis Hartman	Freshman	Francis Parker M.S.
Dustin Benesch	8	Pershing J.H.
David Gillingham	7	Francis Parker M.S.
Scott Hartman	7	Francis Parker M.S.
Bryce Sorem	7	St. Columba
Katy Riel	7	Joan McQueen M.S.
Annie Gillingham	6	Francis Parker M.S.
Brian Riel	4	Alpine Elem.
Frank "JJ" Riel	3	St. Columba

BIRTHDAY CALENDAR FOR SEPTEMBER

Frank "JJ" Riel	September 1	8
Karla Riel	September 20	38
Richard Riel	September 29	51

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

August was another busy month on the birthday front, with five celebrations. Chris and Nathan Riel were treated to a round of miniature golf at the Mission Bay Course, followed by lunch at Chili's. We took in a movie, The Avengers, which was another special effects series of explosions fighting, and etc. Annie celebrated with lunch at Embers restaurant, followed by the movie The Parent Trap. Annie had seen this movie already, but enjoyed it a second time, and we thought it was a good one. JJ celebrated on September 4th with a round of miniature golf at the Family Fun Center, lunch at Embers and a movie, the Air Bud sequel, which we enjoyed. Finally, Bryce was treated to lunch at Oscar's, followed by a round of golf at Admiral Baker. The photos in the next column show the latest birthday kids, and we wish all of them a great big HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!

TRAVEL NEWS

Recently Alan treated Brett and Bryce to a vacation grand tour of baseball parks (and games) in the East and Midwest. We have the following story from reporter Alan Sorem.

The Riel Family Newsletter

Catch the News

September, 1998

SUMMER 1998 BASEBALL TRIP

"Brett, Bryce and Dad along with friends Big Mike and son Mike took a once in a lifetime baseball trip to the east coast. If you're a baseball fan you understand, it you're not, you are probably wondering why we would put ourselves through this ordeal.

The first stop was Baltimore and Camden Yards. We saw two Orioles baseball games, visited the Babe Ruth Museum and birth place and Babe Ruth's school, where he learned to play baseball. We also visited with Marianne (Bryce's godmother). The next stop was New York, where we met Francie in Manhattan and rode the subway to Yankee stadium. It was a great experience to sit with the bleacher bums in New York. Boston was next and Fenway park was voted the BEST, great seats, great sausage dogs and the green monster. Then it was back to New York to sight see and watch the Mets beat the Padres two straight. (Time to get out of town) The next stop was New Haven to watch a double A game at Yale University, then on to Gettysburg PA and a break from baseball to tour the Gettysburg battlefield. Side note: While staying in a hotel in Gettysburg, Brett and Mike were rather amused that the hotel was full of 13 to 16 year old girls from all over Pennsylvania competing in a volleyball tournament. The next stop was Pittsburgh and the Three Rivers Stadium and then the night long 10 hour drive to Chicago. The kids slept and we drove.

We saw two games at Wrigley, the Sears Tower, had dinner at Harry Carey's Restaurant and then we were off to Milwaukee to see the Brewers. Then we took a side trip to Green Bay (Bryce insisted that we go, it was only 130 miles from Milwaukee). We watched the Packers practice and by the way Bryce got the autograph he wanted most on the trip, Brett Farve...other autographs of note: Cal Ripkin, Mo Vaughn, Norman Garciapara, Tony Gwynn, Brady Anderson, Boog Powell, Ben Grieve and Bryce got Glennan Hill's bat, and Matt Stairs bat from the Oakland A's.

After Green Bay we were off to Detroit to see the Tigers. The game was rained out but several good things happened. Brett got Tony Clark and Alex Rodriguez's autographs and we decided we would have time to hit the Sky Dome in Toronto. The next morning we were off to Toronto. The Sky Dome was a great place to watch a game. All of us really enjoyed the experience of the enclosed stadium. Niagara Falls was next, a quick morning stop, you can only look at falling water for so long, then we were off to Cooperstown and the Baseball Hall of Fame. We could have stayed there for a week, but we only had one day left before we needed to be in Baltimore to fly back to San Diego. The Hall of Fame was a great way to finish the trip and believe it or not we are ready to do it again."

We have some pictures on page three, and it is apparent that the gang had a great time. We thank Alan for treating Brett and Bryce to a once in a lifetime experience!!

The other big travel news, as mentioned in the last issue of RFNL, was the Hartman/Gillingham tour of northern California. We now have some photos, as shown on page 4. On their way to Lake Shasta they stopped off at Lake Tahoe. From there they proceeded to kangaroo Lake, then to Castle Lake, near Shasta. We quote as follows from two post cards. "The kids are having a ball!! They just stocked the lake, so the fishing is great. Craig and Scott got up every morning at 5:30 to hit the lake! Bruce joined them twice, and so did Curtis. Michelle and I slept in! They caught more fish than we could eat. There are lots of lakes to explore and sights to see. Mt Shasta is covered with snow. I have pictures to show. Love, B & B.

A "THANKS A LOT" NOTE FROM BOB G

August 3, 1998

A Truly "Peak" Performance

Circumstances conspired to place me on top of a roof, once again, despite my better judgement and all-to-recent memories of a painful back and knees, and I was not looking forward to the task ahead...A month or so earlier, a casual conversation with my older brother, Dave, had introduced the idea of re-roofing my parents' house. Imagining previous scenarios in which I was accompanied by hardy (and hearty) helpers, and only half-believing that we would ever attempt it, I sighed and agreed to help. Unfortunately, several factors became exceedingly (and painfully) clear:

- The roof was three times the size of the largest roof I had ever done.
- Most of the roof needed plywood in addition to shingles.
- A separate guest house had to be done and the shingles carried by hand up to the roof.
- Temperatures were high and climbing.
- The crew included me and Dave (doubling as a frequent errand runner, sigh!).

Somewhat depressed, but ready to proceed, I arrived with gloves and Advil and set about the job. What I didn't know was that Listy had called the Hartman's who, despite having already made plans, immediately dropped everything and headed over to my folk's house with all boys over the age of 14 in tow. En route, they stopped at a grocery store, reducing its inventory by half (a practice that would continue for the next 8 days). Upon arriving at the house, they popped out of the car and immediately jumped into action. Craig and Curtis began working enthusiastically (and efficiently) and would continue to do so for 40 hard, hot hours over the next nine days. Birdy made sure that everyone would be well fed, and Bruce, who would be leading the charge onto the roof if his vision and health allowed it, gave his boys some final bits of advice.

The point is... I would still be on that roof had not this remarkable family (and my wife) come to my rescue. They answered the call without question (as so many of you know they always do), and I learned first hand what great, quality kids they have (musical tastes, notwithstanding). I've always known the Hartman Family is full of characters, but for me, hot tar, tiles and more nails than I care to recall underscore this family's selflessness and illustrated a sterling character of a different sort.

Bob Gillingham

The Riel Family Newsletter

Catch the News

September, 1998

ALAN, BRETT AND BRYCE TAKE IN SOME NEW YORK SCENES

ALAN AND BRETT TAKE THE SUBWAY TO YANKEE STADIUM

BRYCE AND A YANKEE FAN TALK BASEBALL

THE WHOLE BASEBALL GANG IN A NEW YORK RESTAURANT
(BOTTEM PHOTO)

The Riel Family Newsletter

Catch the News

September, 1998

BIRDY AND BRUCE COOK UP A MESS OF RAINBOW TROUT FOR LISTY AND BOB - MEANWHILE AN UNINVITED GUEST TRIES TO CRASH THE PARTY, BUT IS SENT OFF BY BOB

MORE TRAVEL NEWS

As mentioned in the last issue the Mehan family (less Michael, soccer camp) took off for a vacation in the Vancouver area. We quote from a post card as follows, "We are up in the mountains (Cheakamus Lake, Whistler, B.C., Canada). It is quiet and peaceful - no phones, no e-mail. Tomorrow we go kayaking down the River of Golden Dreams. We will miss the white water rapids. Megan was off to Playland - a theme park and is likely to be having a great time without us. See you later - Margaret and Bud".

In addition to the "quiet and peaceful" hiking Margaret tried out something a little more exciting. Yes, the girl on the flying trapeze shown in the photo on the next page really is Margaret, and it may be that this is the start of a whole new career. However, she reports that this may be the last time she tries out this particular form of entertainment. Needless to say, Bud declined the opportunity to try out this new sporting event.

SOME RUNNING NEWS

Carol achieved a new goal by competing in and finishing a 25 mile marathon. She reported that it was quite a challenge, and she may or may not try another one. As you can see from the picture on page 5 she seems to be in pretty good shape, at the finish line. We congratulate her on this achievement, and hope that she will continue to compete at some level. Another running event participated in by Listy and Robert was an informal run. Recently they decided to run from Listy's home to Lyndon Road, after getting an OK from Dad that he would drive them back. As you can see from the picture they are in great shape, although a little sweaty after they arrived. In order to get the exact milage we drove back by the same route they ran, and found the distance to be 13 1/2 miles.

The Riel Family Newsletter

Catch the News

September, 1998

RUNNY NOSE DEPARTMENT

Recently Grandma was slowed down by a sudden flair up of an arthritis problem in her left knee. She spent a couple of days on crutches, but some medication seems to have resolved the problem.

NEW POSITION FOR JEFF BENESCH

When we visited Carol and Jeff recently (see last month's issue) we got some more information on Jeff's new position. He says he is very happy at his new company, and we reproduce his business card below. We understand the T-shirt tee prizes at the Fathers Day golf tournament were procured through this new affiliation, and they certainly were nicely done.

619.653.5357
fax 619.689.2104

1-888-467-8775
9499 Kearny Villa Rd.
San Diego, CA 92126

Your Best Source for
Imprinted Promotional Products,
Custom Screening and Awards

1 23 98

The Riel Family Newsletter

Catch the News

September, 1998

HARTMAN FAMILY HISTORY BOOK

During a recent visit to the Hartman home Birdy loaned us a very interesting book, "The Silver Queen". It relates in some detail the life and times of Her Royal Highness, Suzanne Bransford Emery Holmes Delitch Engalitcheff. (1859-1942) Many of you have met Bruce's grandmother, Granny Sue. The Silver Queen, generally called Suzie, was Granny Sue's aunt, the oldest sister of Granny Sue's mother, Nellie Bransford Harris. Suzie became extremely wealthy through ownership of the Silver King mine, near Park City, Utah, and was reported to be worth several hundred million dollars. The following is quoted from the Prologue. "As an adult she traveled around the world, socialized with Europe's royalty, discussed politics with America's presidents, had an audience with Pope Leo, and chatted with Hitler and Mussolini.... Married four times, she outlived all her husbands-two of them millionaires, one a mining magnate, the other a civic activist; and two gigolos, one a Serbian physician and the other a Russian prince-even though one was thirty years younger than she. Her travels, elegant parties, and personal tragedies frequently made headlines-and created myths." The book contains many photographs, including the one of Granny Sue in her late teens, shown on the right. Another photo taken in the study of Suzie's second husband (Colonel Holmes) shows the bookcase which now is in Bruce and Birdy's home, a gift from Granny Sue. We found the book to be extremely well written and full of interesting stories about the life style of the "new rich" mine owners in the American west.

When Susanna Harris was in her late teens, she often stayed at El Roble, but her father refused to let her become Susie's protégée. Photograph courtesy of Susanna Hartman.

RIEL BOWL VII RFNL DINNER GIFT CERTIFICATE

After a long delay the winner of the RFNL family dinner gift certificate won during the white elephant exchange, the Hartmans, collected their dine out award. They chose the Claim Jumper restaurant, near Grossmont Center, as the site. Everyone had a great time, as you can see in the photos at left and below. It was a fun evening!

Hi Mom and Dad,

We are on our way to out to start our trip towards Lake Shasta. We are first stopping outside Lake Tahoe at the Folsom Peninsula Then on up to Kangaroo Lake near Redding. We'll spend 4 days there and then move over to Castle Crag near Lake Shasta. Bob and Listy will join us there. We will be home on August 15th. As you know, Bob thought the weather would be very warm...so think cool thoughts for us!

I got these coupons from my sister in law and I thought you might be able to put them to good use. If you win big, I want a big cut! :)

I also wanted to thank you for the Riel dinner. Your company is always a pleasure. It was fun to spend the evening together. A memory my children will always enjoy!
Thank you!

Love,
Birdy
P.S. We'll
send post cards!
😊

Sep-06-98 11:00A

P.01

Summer 1998 Baseball Trip

Brett, Bryce and Dad along with friends Big Mike and son Mike took a once in a lifetime baseball trip to the east coast. If you're a baseball fan you understand, if you're not, you are probably wondering why we would put ourselves through this ordeal. First stop Baltimore, and Camden Yards. Two Orioles baseball games, a visit to the Orioles museum and birth place, Babe Ruth's school where he played and graduated. A visit to Camden with Marianne (Bryce's godmother) and a visit to the American Museum of Natural History. Rode the subway to Yankee stadium for an experience with the Yankee buses in New York. Boston was next and Fenway Park. We enjoyed the first great seats, great sausage dogs and the green monster. Then back to New York to sight see and watch the Mets beat the Padres 2 straight. Time to get out of town. Next stop New Haven. Watch a double A game at Yale University, then on to Gettysburg PA and a break from baseball to tour the Gettysburg battlefield. Side note. While staying in a hotel in Gettysburg, Brett and Mike were rather amused that the hotel was full of 13 to 16 year old girls from all over Pennsylvania competing in a volleyball tournament. Next stop Pittsburg and Three Rivers Stadium and then the night long 10 hour drive to Chicago. The kids slept and we drove.

Two games at Wrigley, the Sears Tower, dinner at Harry Carey's Restaurant and we're off to Milwaukee to see the Brewers. Another side trip to Green Bay (Bryce insisted that we go, it was only a 10 miles from Milwaukee). Watched the Packers practice and by the way Bryce got the autograph he wanted most on the trip. Brett got other autographs of note. Cal Ripkin, Mr. V, and the Milwaukee Braves. Bryce got a baseball bat from the Oakland Athletics.

After Chicago we drove to Cooperstown and the Baseball Hall of Fame. Several days of sight seeing and we decided to go to Cooperstown and we were off. We really enjoyed the morning stop at Cooperstown. Cooperstown was a great place to have had one day left. The Baseball Hall of Fame was a great place to visit.

August 3, 1998

A Truly "Peak" Performance

Circumstances conspired to place me on top of a roof, once again, despite my better judgment and all-too-recent memories of a painful back and knees, and I was not looking forward to the task ahead. . . A month or so earlier, a casual conversation with my older brother, Dave, had introduced the idea of re-roofing my parents' house. Imagining previous scenarios in which I was accompanied by hardy (and hearty) helpers, and only half-believing that we would ever attempt it, I sighed and agreed to help. Unfortunately, several factors became exceedingly (and painfully) clear:

- The roof was three times the size of the largest roof I had ever done
- Most of the roof needed plywood in addition to shingles
- A separate guest house had to be done and the shingles carried by hand up to the roof.
- Temperatures were high and climbing.
- The crew included me and Dave (doubling as a frequent errand runner, sigh!).

Somewhat depressed, but ready to proceed, I arrived with gloves and Advil and set about the job. What I didn't know was that Listy had called the Hartman's who, despite having already made plans, immediately dropped everything and headed over to my folks' house with all boys over the age of 14 in tow. En route, they stopped at a grocery store, reducing its inventory by half (a practice that would continue for the next 8 days). Upon arriving at the house, they popped out of the car and immediately jumped into action. Craig and Curtis began working enthusiastically (and efficiently) and would continue to do so for 40 hard, hot hours over the next nine days. Birdy made sure that everyone would be well fed, and Bruce, who would be leading the charge onto the roof if his vision and health allowed it, gave his boys some final bits of advice.

The point is. . . I would still be on that roof had not this remarkable family (and my wife) come to my rescue. They answered the call without question (as so many of you know they always do), and I learned first-hand what great, quality kids they have (musical tastes, notwithstanding).

I've always known the Hartman Family is full of characters, but for me, hot tar, tiles and more nails than I care to recall underscored this family's selflessness and illustrated a sterling character of a different sort.

Bob Gillingham

TEACHER COMMENTS

First Quarter Frank is a strong reader, but he does not like to write. He wastes a lot of time in class and does not finish his work.

Parent Signature

F. Riel

Second Quarter We need to encourage Frank to act responsibly in class, especially to quickly start his work and to finish it. He needs to stay in his seat to do talk.

Parent Signature

F. Riel

Third Quarter Frank's behavior was improving with the daily contact. I will contact that up again. He seems to have a lot of difficulty processing oral directions.

Parent Signature

F. Riel

Fourth Quarter Frank's story showed improvement in his writing. Encourage him to write at home this summer. Have fun in third!

Parent Signature

DIOCESE OF SAN DIEGO

SCHOOL

St. Columba

TEACHER

Mrs. Paige

STUDENT

Frank Riel

GRADE

2

SCHOOL YEAR

1997-98

ASSIGNMENT FOR NEXT YEAR: GRADE

3

PRIMARY REPORT CARD

Codes are given only to SUBJECT AREA Headings and Headings entitled GENERAL STUDY SKILLS and RESPONSIBLE BEHAVIOR. Sub-topics are listed simply as indicators of factors that were considered in assigning a grade. Strengths or weaknesses in these sub-topics may be indicated by using the comment code.

	1	2	3	4	Final
RELIGION	G+	G	O	G+	G+
AWARENESS OF RELIGIOUS TRUTHS TAUGHT
PARTICIPATES IN PRAYERFUL ACTIVITIES
PARTICIPATES IN CLASS
COMPLETES ASSIGNMENTS
READING (LEVEL)	VG	G	VG	VG	VG
VOCABULARY
WORD ATTACK SKILLS
COMPREHENSION SKILLS
ORAL READING
INDEPENDENT READING
PARTICIPATES IN CLASS
COMPLETES ASSIGNMENTS
LANGUAGE ARTS	S	S	S	G	S
LISTENING SKILLS
EXPRESSES IDEAS WELL ORALLY
EXPRESSES IDEAS WELL IN WRITING
USES CORRECT GRAMMAR
PARTICIPATES IN CLASS
COMPLETES ASSIGNMENTS
SPELLING	O	O	O	O	O
APPLIES SPELLING SKILLS TO ALL WORK
SPELLS REQUIRED WORDS
HANDWRITING/PRINTING	S	S	S	G	S
FORMS LETTERS CORRECTLY
WRITES LEGIBLY AND NEATLY
APPLIES WRITING SKILLS TO ALL WORK
MATHEMATICS (LEVEL)	VG	O	VG	VG	VG
UNDERSTANDS NUMBER CONCEPTS
ADDS/SUBTRACTS ACCURATELY
KNOWS THE BASIC NUMBER FACTS
SOLVES STORY PROBLEMS
PARTICIPATES IN CLASS
COMPLETES ASSIGNMENTS
SOCIAL STUDIES	G	G	G	G+	G
SCIENCE	G	VG	O	VG	VG

computer Science

	1	2	3	4	Final
MUSIC	NE	VG	G	G	G
ENJOYS LISTENING
SINGS WITH THE GROUP
PARTICIPATES IN RHYTHM ACTIVITIES
ART	VG	VG	VG	VG	VG
EXPRESSES SELF CREATIVELY
COMPLETES WORK
FOLLOWS DIRECTIONS
CLEANS UP AFTER WORK
PHYSICAL EDUCATION	VG	G+	G+	G+	G+
SKILLS
EXERCISES
GAME PARTICIPATION
COOPERATIVE SPIRIT
LEARNING SKILLS	N	M	N	S	N
IS EAGER TO LEARN
USES TIME WELL
FOLLOWS DIRECTIONS
WORKS INDEPENDENTLY
ATTENTION SPAN
WORKS NEATLY
SEEKS HELP WHEN NEEDED
USES MATERIAL CORRECTLY
FINISHES WHAT WAS BEGUN
MEMORIZES WELL
RESPONSIBLE BEHAVIOR	S	M	S	S	S
WORKS WELL WITH OTHERS
OBEYS RULES
LISTENS ATTENTIVELY
RESPONDS COURTEOUSLY
RESPECTS OTHERS
RESPECTS PROPERTY
RESPECTS AUTHORITY
TAKES INITIATIVE
SHARES TIME AND TALENT
PLAYGROUND BEHAVIOR
RECORD OF ATTENDANCE
QUARTER	1	2	3	4
DAYS ABSENT	0	0	0	0
DAYS LATE	0	0	0	0

MARKING CODE OPTIONS:
 I Not evaluated
 NE (NS-100) Outstanding
 A (NS-50) Very good
 G+ (NS-25) Good and improving
 G Average
 G- (NS-10) Low average
 S (NS-5) Some concerns
 M (NS-1) Failing

COMMENT CODE:
 NE Not a criteria for evaluation
 + Shows effort/improvement
 - Shows lack of effort/improvement
 4 High quality work
 3 Good work
 2 Limited effort
 1 Low level work
 0 Performance needs improvement
 - Unacceptable work/behavior

LEVEL CODE: 1 Above grade level 2 On grade level 3 Below grade level

Colonel Holmes used his study frequently. He was concerned with civic problems ranging from the water supply to the prevalence of crime in the city. Used by permission, Utah State Historical Society, all rights reserved.

and humiliated, she ran to their bedroom, locked the door, and, like her mother, used a gun to kill herself. She had survived Adele by only two years and was just nineteen when she died.⁹

For Susie, the deaths were overwhelming. By this time she was estranged from most of her family, so she treasured her relationship with Adele and her daughter. She had planned to leave them her estate, but in 1939, with both of them dead, she revised her will, now leaving the bulk of her estate to her servants. When she was later asked why she had left her nieces and nephews nothing, she explained that money was the root of all evil, and she planned to spend it all so they would have nothing to fight over after her death. Until the day she died, she claimed money had destroyed her family relationships.¹⁰

Some family members might have agreed with her. In the years that followed her last two marriages, younger members of the family criticized Susie, saying her behavior was foolish and even an embarrassment. Even though she had been very generous to many of them, paid for the weddings of two of her nieces, and financed the college educations of several family members, only Susanna Harris Hartman stayed close, and she saw Susie only infrequently during the late 1930s and early 1940s. While Susie had sought out her wealthy friends, the younger members of her family chose instead to live quiet lives away from the artificiality of society life and the glitter of Hollywood.

Nellie's husband, Jay Harris, had allowed their daughter, Susanna, to stay with her Aunt Susie at El Roble, in the Gardo, and at Oakwood as a child. Prior to her marriage to Gage Hartman, Susanna had often visited with her aunt. But her father refused to let Susanna become Susie's protégée. Susie had introduced the girl to several Hollywood personalities, including Rex Bell, Marie Windsor, and Cecil B. DeMille, who visited at El Roble, thinking this would please her. She may also have been grooming her for a Hollywood career as she had Adele. To make sure Susanna had a stunning dress to wear at any occasion, Susie purchased several for her to pick from whenever she threw a party for her niece. Later, after the dinners concluded, Susie would leave her niece with the men so they could get acquainted. When Jay heard about these parties, he put an end to the nonsense; he would not give Susie a chance to mold his daughter any further. Though he had previously indulged his sister-in-law in her affection for his daughter, he now limited Susanna's visits to her aunt's home and constantly pointed out Susie's flaws.

When Susanna Harris was in her late teens, she often stayed at El Roble, but her father refused to let her become Susie's protégée. Photograph courtesy of Susanna Hartman.

When Susanna grew old enough to travel to Europe with Susie, he again refused to give her permission. He worried that Susanna would not find happiness if she followed Susie's lifestyle. He frequently reminded both of his children that wealth could be a curse or a blessing depending on how it was used. Like Susie, some of his own relatives had great wealth, but he considered them wastrels. He wanted a more secure future for his daughter. Susie was hurt when she heard these criticisms, but she pretended not to notice. At such times she hid behind a nonchalant attitude to protect her pride. In response to her criticism, she began avoiding many of

The imposing rock walls and spires of Castle Crags tower over the upper Sacramento River in Northern California.

USA 32

0 491675 8

Post Card

Frank & Edith Friel

~~1875 Lyndon Rd~~

San Diego, CA 92103

SH-2704 Photo by Erich Ziller

PRINTS AVAILABLE FROM EASTMAN'S WEST POST CARDS, P.O. BOX 1014, MT. SHASTA, CA 96067

Hi Mom and Dad,

We've moved over to

Castle Crags today and we are waiting for Bob and

Lissy and Holly and Rex

to arrive. There are lots of Lakes to explore and sights to see. Mt.

Shasta is covered with snow! The kids are camp excited to have a will be full of friends! We'll be home Sat. 10/25

Love
Erich & Mary

MOUNTAIN MOMENTS

Dear Dad & Mom

We are up in the mountains hiking. It is quiet and peaceful - no phones, no email. Tomorrow we go kayaking down the River of stolen Dreams. We will miss the white water rapids. Megan was off to playground - a theme park & is likely to be having Cheakamus Lake as viewed from trail over the musical bumps, Whistler Min.

Produced by Mountain Moments
Photo - Greg Griffith

See you later
Margaret & Brad

Whistler, B.C., Canada

PRINTED IN U.S.A.
K5 49065

150261

Frank J Riel
Edith Riel
1875 Lyndon Rd
San Diego, CA 92103

5

Pristine CASTLE LAKE (elev. 5,400 ft.) is popular for hiking, fishing, Nordic skiing, and skating. It offers spectacular views of Mt. Shasta (14,162 ft.) and surrounding mountains.

Hi Dad and Mom,
I couldn't find a postcard for Kangaroo Lake - but these looks just like it. The kids are having a ball! They just stocked the lake, so the fishing has been great. Craig and Scott got up every morning at 5:30 to hit the lake! Bruce joined them. Michelle twice and so did Curtis. Michelle and I slept in! They caught more fish than we could eat.

SH-2648 Photo by EYEZ
Beautiful got pictures to show you!

Pub. & © by Eastman Postcards-West, P.O. Box 1014, Mt. Shasta, CA 96067

Post Card

PRINTED IN U.S.A.

Frank & Edith Kiel

1875 Lyndon Rd

San Diego, CA 92103

♡ Birdy and the
Bruce and kids

Mount Dad

"Lady and Sunflowers: The Winds of Change"

Oil on canvas © 1995

By Artist, Suzette Ariel

Private Collection

Here are some pictures of me on the high tapeage. I thought about running away to join the circus but I found that despite my success on the high tapeage I would have to start as the 'peppercorn girl'
Since I already have that job at UEL

NATIONWIDE ADVERTISING 213.665.2556 ALL RIGHTS RESERVED NOT FOR SALE

pick: nite

FREE POSTCARDS™

They have a real peppercorn machine - I decided to return to home and work.

Love you
Suzette

For more information on the artist's work and upcoming shows

Write to: P.O. Box 691562 Los Angeles, CA 90069

Or call: 1.800.656.4732